Professional Statement:

I am a recent Saint Francis University graduate where I studied Computer Science and Cybersecurity with a minor in IT administration. I enjoy streamlining identity and access management (IAM) and securing user environments using Intune, Entra, and Group Policy. I value operational efficiency and aim to support security goals by automating workflows and learning about emerging vulnerabilities in complex network environments.